CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has croup, throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." Then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

DOUBLE GUARDS AT U. S. CAPITOL

Bomb Plots and Unrest Cause Increased Watchfulness at Washington

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—The watchfulness of the guards about all the government buildings in the capital has been redoubled on special orders today. Guards stationed at strategic points commanding all the entrances in the building which houses the state, war and navy departments were under orders to question and if necessary, search any persons of whom they had doubts. Anyone carrying a package of any sort was subject to questioning. Hundreds of tourists pass through the buildings daily.

Since a bomb explosion wrecked a room in the capital last summer and bomb plots generally have kept the government on edge, there has been more than usual activity among the guards here, but how the watch is even more strictly kept.

Guards employed by railroad companies are constantly on duty in the railroad tunnel leading to the bridge over the Potomac river which is the principal gateway to the south.

GRANDPARENTS IN LEGAL FIGHT FOR HUTTONS BOY

A legal fight for the possession of little Fred Huttons, Jr., the 15 month old child who was orphaned when Fred L. Huttons shot his wife and himself on November 16, has been started in the county court by Louis Huttons, grandfather of the child, and Mrs. J. J. Hunsinger, his grandmother.

The habeas corpus proceedings were brought in the 65th district court, but the case was transferred by Judge Edgar Caldwell to the county court.

Counsel for Mr. Huttons produced a message found in the pocket of the baby's father, after his death, indicating his desire that the child should go to his family. Mr. Huttons testified that he was abundantly able to take care of the child.

Mrs. J. J. Hunsinger stated that she had practically taken care of the child since its birth. She stated that for several months Mr. Hunsinger and herself had given Huttons and her daughter a home. She declared that she loved the child as she would her own. Throughout her testimony the baby sat contentedly in her lap.

Mrs. Hunsinger stated that she cared for the child as much as he would for his own, if he had one, and thought that he could properly provide for it for it.

WILLIAM FOX

Presents

"A Wonderful Adventure"

The story of a Soul Destroying Siren, featuring the incomparable American Romantic and Heroic Actor,

WILLIAM FARNUM

Creator of the title roles in the stupendous Klaw & Erlanger Productions, "BEN HUR" and "PRINCE OF INDIA," and screen star of "THE NEW GOVERNOR" "THE PLUNDERER" "THE GILDED FOOL" "SAMSON" "THE SPOILERS" "THE BONDSMAN"

Mr. Farnum plays two distinct roles in "A Wonderful Adventure."

"A wonderful Adventure" abounds in mystifying and artistic photography with double exposures. A new mark in realism set by the lightning effects and the auto collision.

The Motion Picture News says: "If he felt so inclined William Fox might challenge the trade to pick from his five-reel products a William Farnum feature that failed to rank as a fine picture. Mr. Fox, however, has publicly made no such challenge, so we will take up the cudgels in his behalf. And now that that is said and done all that might be remarked is that 'The Wonderful Adventure' is a William Farnum picture. But more than that, it is doubly William Farnum, for the versatile favorite appears in a dual role."
